5. Duties and Responsibilities of Head Coach.

- 5.1 Coach agrees to faithfully and conscientiously perform the duties of head coach of the Program to the best of his ability and to devote his best efforts and full time to the University, subject to the general supervision and pursuant to the orders, advice, and direction of the University's Athletic Director. This amount shall be paid as a contractual obligation and not as a salary and remains subject to all duties, rights, and remedies set forth in this agreement. In the event of said termination, the University shall not be responsible to Coach for any other amounts whatsoever, including but not limited to employee benefits, raises, automobiles or bonuses. In the event the University terminates the employment of Coach without cause, the following shall be applicable during the Payout Period:

- 16.2 Any amounts earned by Coach through employment or by contract during the Payout Period shall reduce the amounts paid Coach by the University. The University will be responsible only for the difference between the prorated amount paid under this Paragraph 16 less any compensation (including deferred compensation relative to any services/work performed and/or remuneration) paid to Coach.

16.3 As a condition of receiving the monthly prorated amount, Coach shall file monthly reports with the Athletic Director detailing Coach's efforts to obtain work, the results of said efforts, and any amount earned. A report must be filed even if no compensation is received.

18. Termination by Coach.

18.1 In the event Coach seeks to terminate this Agreement before the completion of the term of this Agreement, Coach shall pay in full as liquidated damages to the University prior to Coach's effective date of termination, the sum Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000).

18.2 The parties have bargained for and agreed to the foregoing liquidated damages provision, which is reasonable in light of the anticipated or actual harm which would be caused by a termination of this Agreement by Coach, the difficulty of proving the loss to the University with certainty, and the infeasibility of otherwise obtaining an adequate remedy. The University shall not be liable for the loss of any collateral business opportunities or any other benefits, prerequisites, or income from any sources that might ensue as a result of Coach's termination of this Agreement.

In the event that legal action becomes necessary for the University to enforce its rights under this Paragraph 18, the University shall also be entitled to payment from Coach for its reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

19. Performance and Award Bonuses. Any bonus awarded under this Paragraph 19 is payable within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the fiscal year in which it is earned. The bonuses set forth in this Paragraph 19 shall be cumulative.

19.1 If during any year within the term of this Agreement the intercollegiate football team wins the Conference championship game, Coach shall receive a bonus of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

19.2 If during any year within the term of this Agreement the intercollegiate football team participates in a post-season bowl game other than a Bowl Championship Series ("BCS") bowl game, Coach shall receive a bonus equivalent to one month of the base salary in Paragraph 3.

19.3 If during any year within the term of this Agreement the intercollegiate football team participates in a BCS bowl game, Coach shall receive a bonus of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00).

20. Bonuses for Graduation Success Rate and Academic Progress Rate (APR). Any bonus awarded under Paragraph 19 is payable within thirty (30) days after the NCAA publishes the final APR for the Program.

- 20.1 For the purposes of this provision, the term "academic year" refers to the year that commences at the beginning of the Fall semester and includes the Spring and Summer semesters of the immediately following year.
