

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is made, effective January 4, 2013, by and between The Florida International University Board of Trustees ("FIU" or the "University"), a public body corporate of the State of Florida, and Ron Turner ("Head Coach").

The University and Head Coach agree as follows:

1. TERM

The term of this Agreement is from January 4, 2013 until January 3, 2018 unless terminated earlier pursuant to the terms and provisions contained herein. The parties expressly acknowledge and agree that in the event of termination of Head Coach's employment without cause, University shall have no obligation to compensate Head Coach in any manner other than as specified in this Agreement.

2. HEAD COACH'S DUTIES

In consideration of the compensation specified in this Agreement:

(a) Head Coach shall devote his best efforts full-time to the proper performance of his assigned duties under this Agreement and other duties as set forth in the Head Coach's then-current job description on file with the Division of Human Resources. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and the then-current job description, this Agreement controls. Head Coach will perform his duties and personally comport himself at all times in a manner consistent with the University's highest standards of professionalism, competence, academic mission, and personal and professional conduct, morals, integrity and ethics as such highest standards are reasonably determined by the University. At all times, he shall exercise due care that all personnel and students under his supervision or subject to his control or authority shall comport themselves in a like manner.

(b) Head Coach shall develop and implement programs and procedures with respect to the evaluation, recruitment, training and coaching of the FIU Football Team ("Team") in order for the Team members to compete successfully while assuring their welfare. Head Football Coach, with the approval of the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment, shall be responsible for hiring or dismissing the nine football assistant coaches. Hiring and firing decisions must comply with NCAA and Conference rules, law, and University policy.

(c) Head Coach shall observe and uphold all academic standards, requirements, and policies of University and encourage Team members to perform to their highest potential. Head Coach recognizes that the goal of the University is that every student-athlete obtains a baccalaureate degree and agrees to support fully the attainment of this goal.

(d) Head Coach shall maintain and enforce conduct, disciplinary rules and sanctions, both on and off the field and/or court, fairly and uniformly for all student-athletes in the Football program so as to insure academic and moral integrity while encouraging excellence.

(e) Head Coach shall know, recognize, and comply with all applicable laws, as well as applicable policies, rules, and regulations of the University, Conference USA ("the University's Conference") and the NCAA or any successor or such associations or conference, or by any other athletic conference, association, or governing body hereafter having regulatory power or authority relating to the athletic program of the University. Head Coach shall supervise and take appropriate steps to ensure that Head Football Coach's assistant coaches, any other employees for whom Head Football Coach is administratively responsible and the members of the Team know, recognize, and comply with all such laws, policies, rules, and regulations. The Head Coach shall immediately report to the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment and the Director of University Athletics Compliance if Head Coach reasonably believes that any person or entity has violated or is likely to violate any such laws, policies, rules, or regulations. Head Coach shall cooperate fully with the University at all times in any NCAA investigation or inquiry related to the Football program or the Department of Athletics. This duty survives the expiration of this Agreement if the conduct or behavior that is the subject of investigation occurred during this Agreement but the investigation did not start or conclude until after the expiration or earlier termination of the Agreement.

(f) Head Coach shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in any outside employment or activity which would detract from his ability to devote his full-time and best efforts to the performance of his duties. Head Coach shall obtain approval to engage in any outside employment or activity (whether compensated or not for the activity) prior to engaging in such employment or activity in accordance with the University's Outside Employment, Conflict of Interest or Activity, and Financial Interest Policy and the Florida Public Employee Code of Ethics, Chapter 112, Florida Statutes; such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned, and such approval shall only be necessary to the extent the University approval is required by University pursuant to its policy related to outside income and benefits applicable to full-time administration employees or to the extent approval is necessary to ensure compliance with NCAA rules. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the University recognizes that it is currently typical for athletic coaches to conduct and/or participate in summer camps, and, as such, approval for Head Football Coach's participation in summer football camps shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(g) Head Coach shall obtain prior approval of all athletically related income from sources outside the University in accordance with the University's Outside Employment, Conflict of Interest or Activity, and Financial Interest Policy and the Florida Public Employee Code of Ethics, Chapter 112, Florida Statutes.

(h) In accordance with NCAA rules, Head Coach shall provide a written, detailed annual report to the President no later than September 30 of each year disclosing all athletically related income and benefits from sources outside the University in a format to be decided by the University. Upon demand and reasonable notice, University shall be provided with reasonable access to records necessary to verify such report. Sources of such income, include, but are not limited to the following: (i) income from annuities; (ii) sports camps; (iii) housing benefits; (iv) country club memberships; (v) complimentary ticket sales; (vi) television and radio programs; and (vii) endorsement or consultation contracts with athletics shoe, apparel, or equipment manufacturers. This reporting requirement shall not require reporting of income from passive investments made with personal funds of Head Coach. However, Head Coach shall not make any such personal investment which is in conflict with or inconsistent with his duties or the mission of University as determined in accordance with Florida Public Employee Code of Ethics, Chapter 112, Florida Statutes and/or NCAA regulations.

(i) Head Coach has special and exceptional knowledge, skill and ability that render Head Coach's services unique. Head Coach recognizes that rumors or media reports regarding the possible loss of his services to the University are damaging to Team morale and recruiting and that the loss of his services would result in inherent loss to the University. Accordingly, unless University terminates his employment as Head Coach, Head Coach shall not discuss, seek, or consider, whether directly or indirectly, employment with any other sports-related program or business during the term of this Agreement without providing prior written notice to the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment.

(j) Head Coach shall not, on his own or through any other person or entity, usurp any promotional or sponsorship opportunities that may be offered or available to University.

(k) The University owns all rights and title to its logos, trademarks, servicemarks, indicia, or insignia. Head Coach shall not use any of the logos, trademarks, servicemarks, indicia, or insignias of the University unless given advance written approval by the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment or his or her designee. Head Coach shall not develop, endorse, or market any other logo, trademark, servicemark, indicia, or insignia which would or could compete with those of the University unless approved by the University in advance. In the event that the University gives permission to Head Coach to use any logo, trademark, servicemark, indicia, or insignia, such permission shall be non-exclusive, non-transferable and non-sub-licensable, and such permission shall expire automatically upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement. If permission is given, Head Coach shall use such logo, trademark, servicemark, indicia, or insignia only for purposes specifically authorized in or pursuant to this Agreement and such use shall be only in a manner which could not or does not interfere or conflict with the reputation, mission or interests of the University and could not reasonably be expected to, and in fact is not, offensive to standards of good taste. The terms of this subparagraph shall be deemed to be conditions of any permission given to Head Coach by the University whether or not expressly provided on each occasion or in each permission.

(l) Head Coach shall cooperate fully with the University in developing and promoting the University's athletic program, the Panther Club, the FIU Athletic Finance Corporation, the University, the University's Alumni Association, and other University-affiliated organizations. Such cooperation includes, but is not limited to, attendance and participation at meetings, events, radio shows, television, and other media outlets of the University and University-affiliated organizations as directed by the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment; endorsement of products and performance of promotional services; and personal appearances as directed by the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment as part of University sponsorship or endorsement contracts; it being understood that Head Football Coach's football related activities shall at all times take priority over the duties detailed in this Section 2(l).

(m) Head Coach shall report directly to the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment.

3. RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

Head Coach hereby grants and conveys to the University a royalty-free license to use his name and likeness to promote the University, its athletic department, and its Football program, including the right to sublicense the use of Head Coach's name and likeness to the Florida International University Foundation, Inc. ("Foundation"), or third party sponsors of the University's athletic department. Head Coach shall not allow his name or likeness to be used to promote any other institution of higher education, athletic department or Football program. Head Coach acknowledges and agrees that, other than the payments under the Compensation Section of this Agreement, he will receive no royalties or other payments for the use of his name or likeness from the University and/or its sublicensees. After the termination of this Agreement, the University and/or its sublicensees may continue to use Head Coach's name and likeness in any materials or in any media placed in tangible form during the term of this Agreement. However, the University and/or its sublicensees may not, after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, use Head Coach's name or likeness in a manner that implies Head Coach's continuing support or endorsement of the University or one of its sponsors without Head Coach's consent.

In lieu of immediate termination of this Agreement for Cause, and without affecting the University's right to later terminate this Agreement for Cause based on the same and/or any different action and/or omission, and in addition to any rights and remedies under any other provision of this Agreement, the University may impose a suspension on Head Coach for any act or failure to act which constitutes grounds for Cause termination. The University may exercise its right to terminate the Agreement without cause or with Cause before, during, or subsequent to suspension of Head Coach. any other benefits (except any accrued, but unused annual leave due to the Head Coach under University policies applicable to exempt staff), perquisites, or income from any other sources as a result of termination under this Section.

7. TERMINATION BY UNIVERSITY WITHOUT CAUSE

(a) The University may terminate this Agreement without cause at any time prior to its expiration. If the University terminates this Agreement without cause, the University shall pay, or shall cause to be paid, to Head Coach, as liquidated damages, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) two (2) contract years annual base salary or (ii) the base salary payable during the amount of time remaining between the effective date of the termination and the expiration date of the term specified in the Term Section above (such annual base salary being the annual base salary payable on the date of termination), plus, if applicable, accrued, unused vacation pay. If the time remaining during the term of this Agreement on the effective date of termination is more than one (1) contract year, then one contract year's annual base salary and, if applicable, accrued, unused vacation pay shall be paid within one hundred twenty (120) days after the effective date of termination and the remaining amount due shall be payable monthly, in arrears, commencing on the thirtieth (30th) day after the first anniversary of the effective date of termination, subject to offset as described below. If the time remaining during the term of this Agreement on the effective date of termination is one (1) contract year or less, then the total amount due to Head Football Coach plus, if applicable, accrued, unused vacation pay shall be paid within one hundred twenty (120) days after the effective date of termination. If the University terminates this Agreement without cause when more than one (1) contract year is remaining during the term and Head Football Coach is employed as a football coach (whether professional or college) during the time period between the one (1) year anniversary of the effective date of termination and the last day for which University must compensate Head Football Coach under this subsection (a), then the University shall be permitted to offset from its obligation to pay Head Football Coach under this subsection (a) for that period, the base salary earned by Head Football Coach in compensation from any other football coaching position during the same period (it being understood and agreed upon by the parties that in the event base salary for such contract year is a minor portion of the overall compensation to Head Football Coach under such future agreement, then the offset shall be equitably determined based on the compensation structure of this Agreement and such future agreement with such successor school or team). The parties have bargained for and agreed to the foregoing liquidated damages provision, giving consideration to the fact that Head Coach may lose certain benefits, supplemental compensation or outside compensation relating to his employment at University, which damages are extremely difficult to determine with certainty, or fairly or adequately. The parties further agree that payment of such liquidated damages by University and acceptance thereof by Head Coach shall constitute adequate and reasonable compensation to Head Coach for damages and injury suffered because of such termination by University. The foregoing shall not be, nor be construed to be, a penalty.

(b) This shall constitute Head Coach's sole damages for the University's termination of this Agreement, and all other obligations of the University under this Agreement shall terminate immediately upon termination pursuant to this provision. Other than as set forth in subsection (a) above, the University shall not be liable for any salary, bonuses, benefits or other compensation. Head Coach hereby expressly waives all claims to notice periods applicable to exempt employees pursuant to University policy. Other than as set forth in subsection (a) above, the University shall not be liable for any liquidated damages or any loss of any collateral business opportunities or any other benefits, perquisites, or income from any sources that might ensue as a result of University's termination of this Agreement without cause.

8. TERMINATION BY HEAD COACH

(a) The University agrees that Head Football Coach shall be permitted to terminate this Agreement in the event that the University materially breaches Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days of receipt or written notice specifying the breach.

(b) In the event that Head Coach resigns, abandons or otherwise terminates his employment with the University before the last regular season game of the 2017 season; Head Coach shall pay to, or cause to be paid to, the University, as liquidated damages, one (1) contract year's annual base salary at the rate of base salary being paid on the date of termination. Head Coach authorizes the University to offset the liquidated damages owed under this provision by any accrued, but unused vacation leave and any earned but unpaid compensation above the minimum wage. Head Coach agrees to pay the balance of the liquidated damages, if any, as a lump sum payment within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the effective date of termination.

(c) The parties have bargained for and agreed to the foregoing liquidated damages provision, giving consideration to the fact that the University will incur administrative, recruiting and resettlement costs in obtaining a replacement for Head Coach, in addition to potentially increased compensation costs if Head Coach terminates this Agreement prior to its expiration, which damages are extremely difficult to determine with certainty. The parties further agree that the payment of such liquidated damages by Head Coach and acceptance thereof by University shall constitute adequate and reasonable compensation to University for the damages and injury suffered by it because of such termination by Head Coach. The foregoing shall not be, nor be construed to be, a penalty.

(d) The University shall not be liable for any salary, bonuses, benefits, other compensation, any liquidated damages or any loss of any collateral business opportunities or any other benefits, perquisites, or income from any sources that might ensue as a result of Head Coach's termination of this Agreement

9. APPLICABILITY OF NCAA REGULATIONS AND THE UNIVERSITY'S CONFERENCE RULES

Pursuant to NCAA By-Laws, if Head Coach is found in violation of NCAA regulations, then Head Coach shall be subject to disciplinary or corrective action by the NCAA as set forth in the provisions of the NCAA enforcement procedures. The University may terminate this Agreement and/or impose a suspension on Head Coach under this Agreement independent of any action taken by law enforcement, any court and/or other governmental authority, the NCAA, the University's Conference, and/or any other governing body. The University shall not be obligated to await the conclusion of any external law enforcement, court, governmental body, NCAA, the University's Conference, and/or other process, investigation, inquiry and/or other action to exercise the University's rights and/or remedies under this Agreement; however, the University may, at its sole option, elect to await such conclusion without derogating from, or in any manner affecting, the University's rights and/or remedies under this Agreement.

10. UNIVERSITY PROPERTY

All materials or articles of information (except for personal, Football; materials brought by Head Coach to the University), including, without limitation, Head Coach's records, statistics or any other material or data in any form or medium furnished to Head Coach by the University, or developed by Head Coach on behalf of the University, or at the University's or Head Coach's direction or supervision, are and shall remain the sole property of the University. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement with or without cause by either party, Head Coach shall immediately cause any such materials in his possession, custody or control to be returned and delivered to the Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment.

If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement is void, invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

12. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida. Exclusive jurisdiction and venue of any actions arising out of, or relating to or in any way connected with this Agreement shall be in Miami-Dade County, Florida.

This document constitutes the entire understanding of the parties hereto and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous understandings, representations or agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties. This is an Agreement for personal services. It is personal to the Head Coach and the University. Neither party may assign its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the written consent of the other party. This Agreement shall not inure to the benefit of any heir, representative, or assign of Head Coach.

If the event of Force Majeure results in a delay or amended performance of more than ninety (90) days, then the University may terminate this Agreement pursuant to the Termination By University Without Cause Section by, and effective upon, giving notice to Head Coach. A "Force Majeure" means war, civil commotion or disturbances, fire, flood, action by any government (other than the University), an act of God, or any other exceptional event that is beyond the reasonable control of the affected party and prevents that party from fulfilling any of its material and substantial obligations under this Agreement; however, a Force Majeure shall not include the illness, death or disability of Head Coach.

Commencing on July 1, 2015, the total funding of the annual operational budget shall be increased on a one-time basis by an amount equal to $100,000 which may be allocated by Head Football Coach for salaries for football coaches and football support staff. In the event that the University is not required to pay its previous head football coach pursuant to the employment agreement between it and that coach of an amount equal to $100,000, the payment of the one-time budget increase described in this subparagraph will be paid on July 1, 2014 instead of July 1, 2015.
